Biographical Memoirs of Fellows of the Royal Society is a unique biographical compilation of celebrated lives and important achievements. Published annually since 1932, it replaced Obituary Notices of Fellows of the Royal Society, which was first published in 1832. Each carefully researched and creatively written memoir offers a fascinating insight into the human side of scientific success and accomplishment.

Biographical Memoirs of Fellows of the Royal Society is available online at rsbm.royalsocietypublishing.org.